REASONS to publish in UPCommons

UPCommons is the open access portal to the knowledge of the UPC. Its goal is to ensure the preservation of teaching production and university research, maximizing its visibility and increasing its impact.

1. IMPACT
Various studies show that the works published in Open Access are quoted more times.

2. POSITIONING
Improvement of the UPC position in university rankings.

3. VISIBILITY
It increases the diffusion of research results.

4. DURABILITY
The preservation of the document is guaranteed and a permanent web address is assigned.

5. EQUITY
It reduces the inequalities in the access to scientific information.

6. QUANTIFICATION
Access to statistics of consultation and downloads.

7. PROTECTION
The authors preserve their ownership copyright and they can establish the conditions how their works are used.

8. COMPLIANCE
Publish at UPCommons allows to meet the mandates of the Science Law and the Horizon 2020 Programme.
