

PROJECT EVOLUTION

PROPOSAL	CHALLENGES	WATERFRONT QUESTIONS	POTENTIAL WATERFRONT USE	GOALS	PROPOSALS FOR A MULTIPLE WATERFRONT PARK
access to waterfront complete the Manhattan greenway Waterfront environment that sustains the growth	broken axis along the river blockages to the water under-utilized waterfront lack of amenities	what types of new uses activate waterfront? how do you envision using the waterfront at different times? how can we work with the existing infrastructure to create inviting places for people along the waterfront? what is the right balance between new uses and open space?	program existing infrastructure along the esplanade for new waterfront activities provide new uses along the esplanade provide recreational spaces using existing infrastructure promote water dependent activities provide green spaces for passive recreation using the Hudson River Park model create more pedestrian friendly environment reinforce historic character	enhance access to along the waterfront build on existing community plans up-grade public realm with hard and soft landscape add new activities in the public realm provide pedestrian destinations improvements keep improvements in flexibility to avoid marine regulatory delays complement potential future development	plantings benches shelter water play playground public realm public realm public realm public realm

WATERFRONT

